Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Summary

On April 18, 2006, an Office Action was sent to the Applicant rejecting claims 1-23. On July 18, 2006, the Applicant responded with arguments.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Praisner (2002/0174030), as set forth in the previous Office Action.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed July 18, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Applicant argues that Praisner does not refer to a second payment card; "subsidiary spending power is configured to consume a portion of said parent spending power"; or "reducing, at said host computer, said spending power by an amount less than said subsidiary spending power when said subsidiary account is linked to said parent account". In response, Praisner discloses a second payment card. Praisner discloses that there exists a master credit limit, which may be interpreted as being a "second payment card" by which the other cards issued to the employees may be linked (p.15, 89). Praisner also discloses a "subsidiary spending power is configured to consume a portion of said parent spending power". The master limit is issued to the company, and the company decides how to disperse the credit lines on the cards to its employees based on position and need (p.24, 150 to p.25, 163). In the example, the company is issued a master credit limit of $200,000, whereby the CFO decides how to divide the master credit line into individual credit lines on employee cards based on the specific needs of the employees in the position that they hold. Lastly, Praisner discloses "reducing, at said host computer, said parent spending power by an amount less than said subsidiary spending power when said subsidiary account is linked to said parent account". The parent spending power has already been set by the issuing company for the credit line. The company may increase the amount of the credit line, if necessary. Thus, the parent spending power is reduced by an amount less than the subsidiary when the subsidiary account is linked. The subsidiary spending power will decrease, but the company holds the power to increase or maintain the credit line without the subsidiary account spending power affecting the master limit.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
